Hello Again!

Can you believe the semester is almost halfway over? If you need a quiet place to study for midterms, head to the second floor of the Library. We have plenty of computers and quiet study areas and a total of 6 study rooms for you to use. Each study room holds up to 4 people, so they are perfect for small study groups! We even have a new software that allows you to book a room before you even get to the library! Check it out here or by clicking the “Book a Study Room” button on our webpage.

Don’t forget to follow us on Facebook!

Who’s Who?

Stop by and meet our student workers. Ashley, Brigette, Brookelynn, Kiara, Kim, and NaTya work hard to help the librarians keep the library running smoothly!

Tutor Talk!

Join the Learning Commons as we extend a warm welcome to Ms. Maudie Rosenberry, our new Tutoring Center Manager. We are so excited she is here! Please stop by the tutoring center and say “Hi!”

“When in doubt, go to the Library.”
-J.K. Rowling
In September, BPCC kicked off our 50th anniversary celebration with this historic display of BPCC T-shirts. Stop by the Library to see our new display!

Featured Resource

Credo Reference is a great place to begin your research. It has lots of articles which give you good, reliable background information and tools to help you broaden or narrow your research topic.

Click here for a video tutorial.

New in the Library

We have made using the study rooms upstairs in the library and tutoring center even easier! Our new scheduling software allows you to reserve a room yourself, right when you need it or even before you get to the library.

Click here or on the button above to book a study room now.

Behind the Scenes

Librarians are working on a new Library website. This website will be extremely user-friendly and allow you to easily search databases and the library catalog at the same time! We can’t wait to share it with you! Look for it at the beginning of the Spring semester.